

Call for Nominations for 2019 CACA Young Investigator Award Sponsored by Advanced Materials Technology

The Chinese American Chromatography Association (CACACA) invites nominations for candidates for 2019 CACA Young Investigator Award. The Award recognizes outstanding contributions to the development of separation science and its applications, especially in the field of chromatography. The 2019 CACA Young Investigator Award is sponsored by Advanced Materials Technology (<https://www.advanced-materials-tech.com/>) and will be presented at the Pittcon Conference & Expo 2019 to be held in March 17 - 21, 2019, Pennsylvania Convention Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. The awardee will give a presentation in a CACA career workshop at Pittcon 2019. A $1000 cash award and a plaque will be presented with the award at Pittcon 2019.

Eligibility:

The CACA Young Investigator Award is open to all CACA members who are within 10 years of receiving their highest degree at the time of the award session.

 To register as a member by joining the CACA group on LinkedIn:
<http://www.linkedin.com/groups?gid=1857030>. There is no membership fee.*

Evaluation:

Application packages will be evaluated by the CACA Awards committee. The applicants are judged on the originality and overall quality of work, significance to the advancement of separation science and other supporting factors. Measures of the impact of the work include publications, presentations, patents, and leadership roles at their research fields or place of business.

Application package:

An application package must consist of the following items,

- 1) A cover letter summarizing the applicant's contribution to the field of separation science.
- 2) A resume including contact information, academic credentials, work experience, and publication list of the nominee.
- 3) A maximum of three supporting letters from mentors, supervisors, colleagues or other experts in separation science.
- 4) A headshot photo.

The candidates can be self-nominated or nominated by any separation scientists in the field. The deadline for the 2019 CACA Young Investigator Award nomination is August 1, 2018. The awardee will be selected by the CACA Awards Committee and notified by October 15, 2018. Details of CACA and its free membership are listed at <http://www.ca-ca.org/>.
